I noted that Paul Jacobson jumped on the anti-Guy McLaren bandwagon on his blog. I think that this is a sign of his desperation to get more visits to his blog, which IMHO is a load of bollocks and is telling of the laziness of Journalists today.

I say this because he has never approached me for any information. He has never communicated with me in any form. How can he claim that his blog is anything but biased, based on hearsay and absolute bull twaddle.

Paul are you man enough to admit that you are not worthy of the title Journalist? Are you man enough to admit that you jumped in without any real information? Can you tell me why you would write such crap about someone that you don't know? Did I offend your frail sensibilities by writing about the MUTI clique, Are you one of them?

I find this man odious, In my opinion he has the morals of an alley cat, the brain of a slug and the personality of a dead chicken.

Paul take this how you will, But IMO you need a little attitude adjustment. Onanism may just be the answer to your sexual frustration.

Testimonials

I took the plunge and bought one of Guy's R274 sites mainly to tinker on the web, without destorying my business site. Besides, at that price, what have I got to lose. Setting up a website will always have teething problems, but the quality of information that is supplied to assist you along the way is excellent. I have bombarded Guy and Melanie with a number of queries/cries for assistance via e-mail and have always received an unexpectedly prompt reply (particularly outside office hours!) The turoirals on generating more traffic to your site, will no doubt not only benefit my R274 site, but also my businesses website as a result. Please feel free to visit my site www.quaser.co.za but bear in mind that it is currently "work in progress" as I work through Guy's tutorials.

I've been in regular contact with Guy over the past couple of weeks, as we are/were doing work for one another. Guy is honest and straightforward and does not make false promises. In business, that is rare and extremely valuable. I'm very glad I've met him.
